

Confession: CONFIDENCE

Father God, I thank you that, according to Your Word, because of Jesus' eternal sacrifice, the blood of the eternal covenant, I have been translated into the kingdom of Your dear Son: a kingdom of righteousness, peace (wholeness), and joy in the Holy Spirit. Jesus has brought me near to You and caused me to be accepted in Him. Therefore, I always have access to your presence and I enter with all confidence.

Today and forevermore, Jesus is made unto me wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption. The work of righteousness will be peace, and the service of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. Such confidence I have through Christ toward You, Father God; for my adequacy is from You, and by You, I have been made an able minister of the new covenant.

I worship you Father for your love, goodness, and faithfulness towards me. You always cause me to triumph in every situation. I have confidence toward You in that, if I ask anything according to Your will (your Word), You hear me, and since I know You hear me, I have (as my present possession) the petition or request that I desired of You.

I am a living, speaking spirit just like God; therefore, I cast not away my confidence, my bold speaking, because it has great recompense of reward. I believe, therefore, I speak the word of faith.

I boldly confess that I am forgetting those things that are behind; I will not allow my past to steal my confidence. I reach forth unto those things which are before me to gain the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Setbacks and delays will not cause me to lose confidence in the never-failing Word of God, as I endure hardness and overcome. Nor will the negative, faithless opinions of others rob me of true victory in Christ. A thousand may fall at my side, and ten thousand at my right hand; but I boldly proclaim it will not come near me.

In all assurance, I confess I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me. I commit my works to the Lord, and by Him, my thoughts are established. He provides for me an abundance of peace and truth. I find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. The Lord is my shield and exceeding great reward. He will deliver me from every attack of the enemy, cause me to overcome every obstacle, and cause me to walk through many lucrative and effective open doors.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, my deliverer, my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. I will fear no evil, for the Lord will never leave me, nor will He forsake me.

My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise. For You are my hope; O Lord God, You are my trust from my youth and You, the loving, Covenant-keeping God, are the source of my confidence. Amen!
